Caught Near Pelham Manor Residence, Suspects Hold Up Their Captors.

Pelham Manor, the exchistve residence district which has long suffered from mysterious robberies, was in a state of excitement to-day when it was learned that two men, both in evening clothes, after attempting to rob the home of Charles Poud, cashier for J. P. Morgan & Oc., had shot William Furrell, a Palhan Manor policeman, after a running fight in which a fusiliade of builets whilsted about the heads of the robbers and their pursuers.

All the robberies in Pelham Manor have been committed while members of the household have been at dinner. The pobberies became no frequent that the town organized a police force, commanded by Chief Marks. Farrell was one of the policemen who has been diver after Aferic.
